

4 COUNTRIES

45+ CITIES

50 MILLION SMILES

500+ SHOWS

INTERVIEWED AT BBC ASIA
NETWORK LONDON

INTERVIEWED AT ABC
NEWS MELBOURNE

FEATURED ON NDTV
RISING STARS OF COMEDY

JASPREET SINGH

A stand up comedian known for his fresh and universal content striking the right chord with people across all age groups. From Delhi to Dubai, Bangalore to Melbourne, Mumbai to London, his Stand-up solo "Tu Toh Chup Hi Reh!" has managed to sell around 10,000 tickets and has spread happiness across the globe.

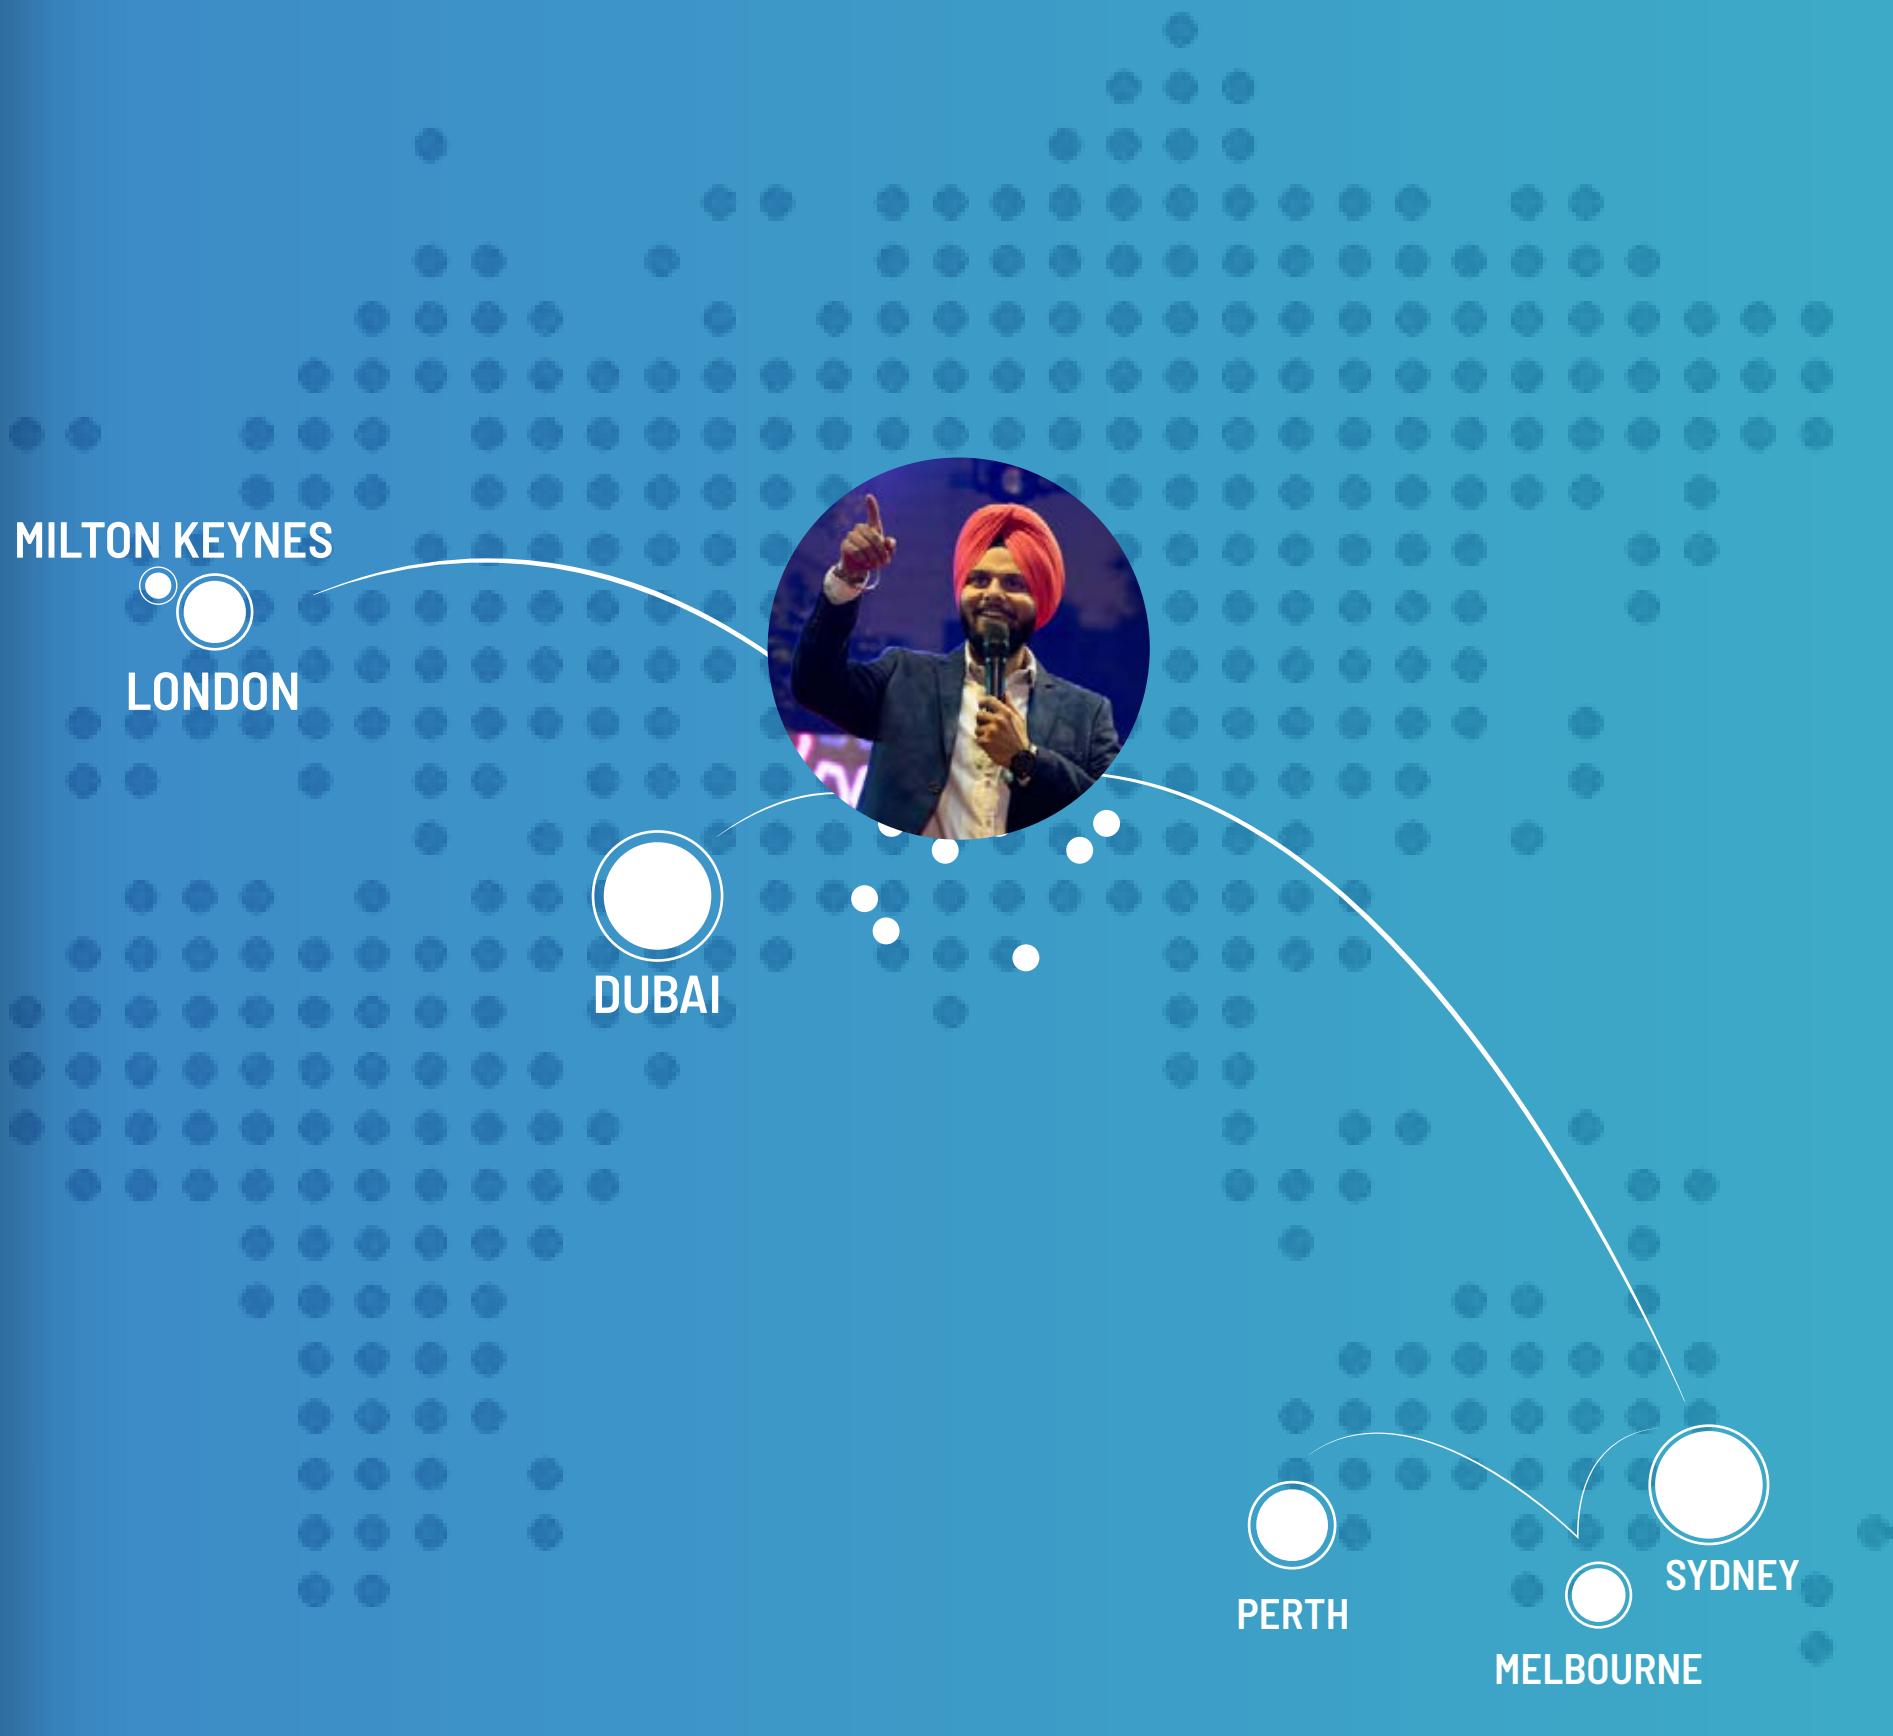

SHOWS IN INDIA:

Amritsar, Siliguri, Kanpur,
Ludhiana, Kolkata, Jalandhar,
Chandigarh, Patiala, Surat,
Delhi, Goa, Vadodara,
Mumbai, Shillong, Ahmedabad,
Jaipur, Guwahati, Indore,
Pune, Chennai, Jodhpur,
Hyderabad, Dehradun, Bhopal.
Bangalore, Nagpur,
Gurgaon, Lucknow,

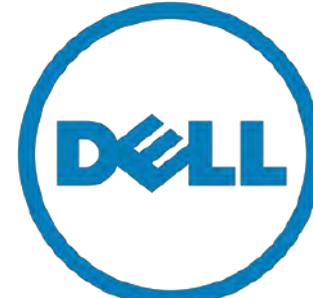

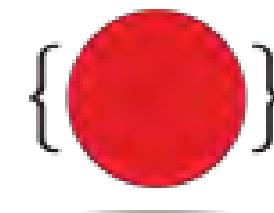

SHOWS OVERSEAS:

London, Wembley, Milton Keynes,
Sydney, Melbourne, Perth, Dubai.

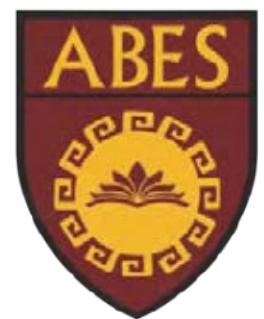

CORPORATE CLIENTS

COMEDY Club

SHAHEED RAJGURU COLLEGE
OF APPLIED SCIENCES
FOR WOMEN

COLLEGE CLIENTS

'COMEDY HAS A BRIGHT FUTURE IN INDIA'

Stand-up comedians Kanan Gill and Jaspreet Singh, and social media star Ssumier Pasricha were in Chandigarh to perform at the Just Comedy Festival over the weekend.

People have become sensitive to everything: Ssumier S Pasricha

You have to present your jokes in a smart way'

THE HINDU

LIFE & STYLE

At home with 'desi' humour

Neeraja Murthy

OCTOBER 04, 2017 12:21 IST
UPDATED: OCTOBER 04, 2017 12:22 IST

Jaspreet Singh believes in his unique brand of comedy

It is a situation which is an integral part of an Indian family when a young member tries to be smart and offers a suggestion, elders ask him/her to be 'chup'! "I have faced this because I am the youngest in my family," points out Jaspreet Singh, who is set to explore this fundamental aspect through jokes and one-liners in his stand-up show 'Tu Toh Chup Hi Reh'. To be staged this Friday in the city, the title is part of a story and the show will be interspersed with lot of references.

First visit

ADC Mumbai Mix

Mumbai Despatch & Courier

INTERVIEW JASPREET SINGH

A RISING STAR

Foraying into the world of comedy is no small feat, and this is especially true in India where it is only seen as good enough to become a doctor, lawyer or engineer. That brings us to Jaspreet Singh, an up-and-coming comedian who hasn't given up his day job just yet. Karan Kapoor catches up with the comic about his multi-city tour and more

THE ECONOMIC TIMES | Panache

Meet the rising stars of the Indian comedy scene

The Tribune

HOME | NATION | WORLD | PUNJAB | HARYANA | HIMACHAL | J & K | CITIES | OPINION | SPORT | BUSINESS | FEATURES

TOP STORIES

- India seething with anger; attackers will have to pay a heavy price: PM Modi
- IAF plane brings bodies of slain CRPF men to Delhi
- Curfew imposed as protests rock Jammu against terror attack
- India issues strong demarche to Pak; launches diplomatic offensive
- India withdraws MFN status to Pakistan, to isolate it globally

REGISTER / SIGN IN

SBS

PUNJABI

26 JUL 2018 - 5:37PM

Laugh out loud with stand-up comedian Jaspreet Singh

Dad, Savings aur Milk | Jaspreet Singh Stand-Up Comedy

JASPREET SINGH 'DAD, SAVINGS AUR'

Watch later Share

F Share T Tweet C Comments (0)

We are in the golden age of stand-up comedy, not just in the country but also in the city, where there are about three to five open mics being held at restaurants and pubs every week.

Chennai: There clearly is no dearth of talent, both in English and Tamil. But what is missing in this booming stand-up comedy scene in the city is an exclusive space where comedians can hone their act based on the response from discerning audience. To fill this void, Bengaluru-based Counterculture started a comedy club in Alwarpet last week.

Budding comedians usually test their material during open mics – a brief slot given to amateur comedians to perform – that take place in

DT NEXT FOR THE NEW AGE READER

NEWS CINEMA LIFESTYLE ASTRO

CHENNAI | TAMIL NADU | NATION | WORLD | SPORTS | BUSINESS | CITIZEN

Chennai gets exclusive space for stand-up comedy

Published: 12 Feb 2018 02:08:00 AM by Robert V Jayaraman

C Share T Tweet C Comments (0)

Chennai: There clearly is no dearth of talent, both in English and Tamil. But what is missing in this booming stand-up comedy scene in the city is an exclusive space where comedians can hone their act based on the response from discerning audience. To fill this void, Bengaluru-based Counterculture started a comedy club in Alwarpet last week.

Budding comedians usually test their material during open mics – a brief slot given to amateur comedians to perform – that take place in

GULF NEWS GOING OUT

Bars+Clubs Movie Reviews Restaurants Events Society

Jaspreet Singh to bring the laughs to Dubai

The Indian comedian will return to the city with a one-night performance in December

TRENDING

- Pizza Hut, Krispy Kreme take relationship public
- Highest lounge in the world sets new record in Dubai
- Renew your SIM card registration online

JASPREET SINGH
'DAD, SAVING
AUR
MILK'

Jokes about interaction with Dad, milk and the ultimate goal of life

ANVAS
LAUGH
CLUB

JASPREET
SINGH
SHOPPING

Observation of a shopping experience with wife

'HORROR MOVIES'

JASPREET SINGH

Jokes about my all time fear - Horror Movies

'GHAR
KI
TALAASH'

Jokes about my thought process while searching for a house in the millennial city- Gurgaon

moodé बन्दे SHOW

PART - 1

Interview by Talentopedia Part-1

moodé बन्दे SHOW

PART - 2

Interview by Talentopedia Part-2

